

19. (New) A method according to Claim 17, wherein the first perfume composition comprises from 20% to 70% of a fragrance material having a ClogP value of greater than 2.5.

20. (New) A method according to Claim 17, wherein the first perfume composition comprises less than 20% of a fragrance material having an odor detection threshold of less than 4.0 mg/L when tested in a solution of fragrance material and water.

REMARKS

Claims 1-10 have been canceled without prejudice. Claims 11-20 have been added to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter of the present invention. Antecedent basis for Claims 11-20 is found throughout the specification and original claims.

CONCLUSION

Applicants have made an earnest effort to place the present claims in condition for allowance. WHEREFORE, entry of the amendments provided herewith, and allowance of Claims 11-20, as amended, are respectfully requested.

Respectfully submitted,
